

Concern Worldwide TY ACADEMY Application Form

TEACHER & PARENT MUST ALSO COMPLETE SECTIONS

Concern's Transition Year Academy programme will be of interest to students who are keen to gain insight into key issues around hunger, gender, climate change and health. Our aim is to share with you our expertise and guidance and to equip you with tools to become problem solvers and advocates for a more just world.

As Concern is contributing significant resources, it is expected that applicants should be strongly committed to engage with the programme for the full week and to engage in follow up projects*. Please ensure that you are unlikely to have any clashing commitments such as exams, trips away, sporting events etc. in so far as you can foresee. We are unable to offer the programme outside of these weeks. The programme is offered free of charge but students are responsible for their own accommodation and transport arrangements and Concern cannot provide assistance with expenses incurred. Students will be encouraged to attend the Agents of Change event on April 3rd when they will have the opportunity to share their learning with other students and Concern staff.

* This may take the form of a campaigning, public awareness or fundraising activity in their school or community over the course of just a few hours. Training and guidance will be provided.
