

Background : Motion One in the Concern Debates Programme is GMOs are necessary in the fight to end world hunger. In this podcast, Concern Debates staff members Leanne O’Neill and Ruth Lynam chat with Concern’s Michael Doorly about the work of Concern, the issue of hunger and exploring the topic of GMOs. Perfect to help students get started with motion one!

Listen to the podcast and answer the questions as you go!

- Question One- list three facts about Concern

1.

2.

3.

- Question Two – what are the main causes of hunger in the world today?

1.

2.

3.

- Question Three- What is Concern doing to help tackle hunger in the countries it works in?

- Question Four- What does the term GMO stand for?

- Question Five- Write two sentences on what a GMO is

- Question Six- List two arguments for the Proposition side and two arguments for Opposition side that Michael mentions: