

The Concern Debates Podcast 2024

Motion Two

“Feeding the world is increasingly beyond humanity’s reach”

In episode two of the 2024 ‘Debating Development’ podcast series, Olga chats to Abdulkadir Ibrahim, Concern Somalia’s Resilience Programme Manager, and Beldine Atieno, Concern’s Advocacy and Policy Officer in the Horn of Africa, about hunger, food insecurity and the factors driving these challenges.

Listen to the podcast and answer the following questions:

- According to the UN’s 2023 report, what proportion of people globally are facing food insecurity?
- Complete the mind map:

- Name a factor that affects:

1. Access to food:
2. Availability of food:
3. Distribution of food:

- How do conflict and climate change affect food security?

Conflict	Climate Change

- How would climate resilient crops support those at risk of food insecurity?
- Do the guests mention any other solutions to the problem of food security?
- List three arguments that support the motion based on Beldine, Abdulkadir and Olga's discussion.
- List three arguments that oppose the motion based on the interview.
- How do the topics discussed in the podcast connect to your life, either personally, at school or in your community?
